Certificate of Achievement 2003

Our wine program is designed to showcase the bounty of Sonoma County's fourteen American Viticultural Areas. We proactively seek out wineries, wines and vineyard designates of distinction. It has been said many times that great wines begin in the vineyard. Fortunately for us, the multifaceted expression of varietal character is displayed and defined within the American Viticultural Areas of Sonoma County.

Intriguing Proprietary Blends

Artesa, Elements, Sonoma and Napa Counties, 2005. $48.00

Here's a delicious blend of Bordeaux-style fruit from a mountain-side vineyard in Alexander Valley, coupled with smaller portions of Tempranillo and Syrah from Carneros. The end result is a full-bodied wine with notes of ripe berry, currant, blueberry, cinnamon, clove, silky texture, balanced tannins and a hint of smoked meats on the finish.

Westwood RedFour 2005 Red Wine, Annadel Estate Vineyard, Sonoma Valley $48.00

This delicious red wine is a blend of four unique grapes—Syrah, Mourvedre Grenache and Tannat—grown at the historic Annadel Estate Vineyard. Robust flavors include ripe cherry, briary blackberry, leather, black pepper and other savory spices.

Acorn, "Medley" Proprietary Field Blend, Alegria Vyd, Russian River, 2006. $56.00

Classic old vine blend of 34% Zinfandel, 34% Syrah, 8% Cinsault, 8% Cabernet Franc, 4% Sangiovese, 4% Petite Sirah, and 8% other varieties. This wine features enticing aromas of dark-skinned fruit, toasty oak and black pepper reappear in the richly textured palate along with ripe juicy blackberry and hints of blueberry, citrus, mocha, spices and a velvety mouthfeel.

Bedrock, The Bedrock Heirloom, Sonoma Valley, 2007. $65.00

Big, bright and jammy "field blend" composed of Zinfandel, Carignane, Petite Sirah, Syrah, Barbera and numerous other "mixed black" grape varieties planted as far back as the 1880s. The result is an old vine-style wine loaded with lush notes of wild berry, cherry, cedar, and plenty of spice! Only 185 cases made.

Arrowhead Mountain Vineyard, Reserve Red, Sonoma Valley, 2006. $68.00

Powerful blend of Zinfandel and Syrah grapes grown on a rugged hillside vineyard east of Sonoma. Made by talented winemaker Chris Brockway, this wine features aromas and flavors of ripe blackberry, licorice, spice, plenty of texture, acidity, and a hint of smoke on the finish.

Milestone, Bordeaux-style Red Wine, Sonoma County, 2006. $90.00

Modeled after the classic styles of Pomerol and St. Emilion, this delectable wine is made with 53% Merlot, 28% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Petite Verdot, 5% Malbec and 5% Cabernet Franc. Selected from ultra-premium vineyards in Alexander Valley and Russian River Valley, the wine features bold flavors of ripe black fruit, dark chocolate, layers of spice, fine oak, and a long, lingering finish.

Audelssa, "Summit" Red Wine, Sonoma Valley, 2006. $100.00

Power Bordeaux-style blend of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot and smaller portions of Cabernet Franc and Malbec grapes grown on rocky hillsides above 1,500 feet. The outcome is a very complex wine with plenty of lovely dark fruit, spice, structure, elegance, finesse, and plenty of backbone.

Etude, GBR Estate Red Wine, Carneros, 2006. $120.00

A magnificent hit at our annual Heirloom Tomato dinner this summer, this powerful blend of Merlot, Malbec and Syrah features core flavors of ripe berries, anise, black olive and spice. Besides complementing Chef Janine Falvo's tasty style of Mediterranean cuisine, the complexity of this limited release wine highlights the true beauty of the soil and climate influence on the pristine grapes grown at the majestic Grace Benoist Ranch (a.k.a. the GBR Estate).
